About the role

We are looking for an inspirational coach to join our amazing charity which makes a positive impact to the lives of children and young people.

The role involves using the power of sport and physical activity to positively engage young people in both schools and communities.

Active Fusion is an award-winning charity whose mission is to help every child develop a love for being active by unlocking potential and creating positive habits for life. We are a close team who are passionate, dedicated, and motivated; our positive culture is the foundation to our success.

Our Core values:

Joyful - We feel inner personal satisfaction

Passionate – We care about you

Nurturing – We help others to grow

The Education Sports Coach will:

- Deliver sessions in schools and communities in line with the national curriculum.
- Work with National Governing bodies of sport (NGB's) and other relevant sport development agencies.
- Plan engaging and innovative activities using either sport, physical activity and skill development.
- Provide children and young people with great experiences using the power of sport.
- Demonstrate the effectiveness of sport and skill development.
- Maintain good relationships with key stakeholders - children, parents, business managers, school teachers, headteachers, PE leads.
- Use customer insight to design interventions.
- Use ICT to monitor and evaluate programmes to measure impact and demonstrate outcomes.
- Understand the importance of physical activity and a healthy lifestyle.
- Help to use sport and skill development as a tool for social change.
- Understand the principals of safeguarding, child protection and working with vulnerable adults.
- Be first aid trained.
- The potential opportunity to study level 3 CSHO qualification.

The successful candidate will have experience in:

- Leading sessions of sport and physical activity sessions with a primary school setting.
- Maintaining relationships with key contacts in schools.
- Using various approaches to change attitudes to sport and physical activity in local communities.
- Supporting people to become involved in the preparation, planning and delivery of sport and exercise.
- Communicating clearly with a range of different groups in a range of different ways.
- Adapting to different situations and use own initiative to problem solve.
- Building partnerships with local communities, businesses, and other relevant stakeholders.
- Ensuring that provision is inclusive, customer focused and accessible.

The successful candidate will demonstrate:

- Excellent work ethic and attention to detail.
- Superb time management.
- Adaptability.
- A positive attitude to work and be a role model within communities.
- A willingness to work as a team but also individually.
- An appetite to learn and develop personally and professionally.
- All the Active Fusion values in the way that they work and live.
- Be able to travel independently to various location across South Yorkshire
